Executive Proclamation
Office of the Governor

Whereas, Frank Sherer has devoted his life to caring and sharing with family and friends, the betterment of his community, and the day-to-day living and loving which makes South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

Whereas, Frank has made good use of his 40-plus years of experience as an engineer and has provided his knowledge, order, persistence and a slight growl to complete the remodeling project at Ss. Peter & Paul Catholic Church; and,

Whereas, Frank is truly a steward of the church and has devoted his time and talent to the remodeling project at Ss. Peter & Paul Catholic Church; and,

Whereas, His wife, Jeanne, provides support, encouragement, and patience behind the scenes; and,

Whereas, Frank had an optimistic view of the successful completion of this enormous project and has been steadfast in his convictions to complete every minute detail; and,

Whereas, Frank is truly a treasure to this Parish for his commitment to the successful completion of the remodeling of the Ss. Peter and Paul Catholic Church; and,

Whereas, It is only fitting and proper to honor Frank on this special day of the rededication of the church:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim December 22, 2004, as in South Dakota.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixteenth Day of December in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Four.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
